FOLLOW THE TRAIL

You may not know that New York's High Line walkway features purple love grass, bur oak, redleaf rose and Indian rhubarb, but just the same, we bet you'll enjoy Bond No. 9's homage to the city's latest destination: High Line eau de parfum (3.4 oz, $220), which blends the scents of all these plants. bondno9.com.

2.

TREAT YOUR LIPS

Lancôme's Juicy Tubes is celebrating its tenth birthday with an irresistibly sweet deal: 100% Natural Origin glosses (limited edition; $18 each) that soften and smooth lips with honey. lancome-usa.com.

3.

GET SMOOTH

The fine print on Tela Beauty Organics Sugar Scrub ($25) read "for unbelievable soft and supple skin," and after our ten-minute trial, we agree. The exfoliator's mix of oils soaks in beautifully—no greasy residue. nordstrom.com.

4.

START FRESH

Orange blossoms every day? Our sole complaint: the fresh smell of Neil George's Everyday Cleanse shampoo ($20) and Everyday Moisture conditioner ($22) has us lingering in the shower morning after morning. spacenk.com.

5.

LIGHT UP A ROOM

Jo Malone is showing off its bright side, thanks to paint-and-wallpaper manufacturer Farrow & Ball, which has dressed up five of the fragrance company's best-selling candles in designer shades. Grapefruit in No. 67, Farrow's Cream (limited edition; $65), shown here, may just energize you for a second round of swatches. jomalone.com.
