Around the World in 5 Perfumes

Perfumers have always been inspired by places—Guerlain made Eau de Portugal in 1828, YSL created Rive Gauche in 1970—but suddenly, cities and countries are muses again.

PARIS
A little more fresh and green than the original version: rose, violet, orange blossom and peony blend lightly with sandalwood and white musk.
Yves Saint Laurent Paris Premieres Roses Eau de Toilette, $98, yslbeautyus.com

SAG HARBOR
The scent of the ocean, plus peony, honeysuckle, Long Island grapes and sandalwood.
Bond No. 9 Sag Harbor Eau de Parfum, $240, bondno9.com

HONG KONG
Roses, violets and lilies mix with a citrusy sea-spray element inspired by Victoria Harbour.
The Scent of Departure Hong Kong Eau de Toilette, $45, thescentofdeparture.com

TEXAS
Rugged but light—smoky cedar and amber are spiked with fresh orange.
United Scents of America Texas Eau de Toilette, $58, shopunitedscents.com

RIO
Maracuja and gardenia blossoms are spiced up with myrrh and sandalwood, while apple makes it super-fresh.
DKNY Be Delicious [Hearts] Rio Eau de Parfum, $65, sephora.com

The Pale (and Lazy) Girl's Guide to a Glow

Actress/reformed tanner Anna Faris used to hit the beach and even, she admits, tanning beds. "Then a makeup artist said my skin was starting to look damaged, which scared the crap out of me." Scared straight, she now has a great, bronzy-ish look that really works:

"I'm always messing around with new eye creams, but I've recently stuck with this one. It's really light and gentle."
Chanel Ultra Correction Line Repair, $85, chanel.com

"This is pretty much idiot-proof. And it has SPF in it, which is amazing because I'm a really lazy person."
Jergens Natural Glow & Protect Daily Moisturizer with SPF20, $9, drugstores

"Since I like to play up my eyes, I like my lips to be really neutral. Tom Ford's lipsticks are just the best. Of course. Typical Tom."
Tom Ford Lip Color in Blush Nude, $48, neimanmarcus.com
