Look What We Found!

A lively fragrance, a gentle cleansing milk, and more... Here's what O's beauty team fell in love with this month.

■ You don't have to know where New York City's Union Square is to love Andy Warhol Union Square by Bond No. 9 ($195 for 100 milliliters). The scent, a rich blend of lily of the valley, freesia, golden amber, musk, and white birch wood, is original and arresting, not too sweet, and light enough for the warmest summer days. And the sculpted glass flacon, covered with Warhol's exhilaratingly vivid grass and flower prints, deserves its own 15 minutes of fame. Oops! Fame. ▶
